

Mark Titterington appointed Director General of spiritsEUROPE

Brussels, 10 June 2025 - spiritsEUROPE is pleased to announce the appointment of Mark Titterington as its new Director General, effective 1st September 2025.

Mark Titterington is currently co-founder and Director of the Forum for the Future of Agriculture, where he has played a leading role in growing the organization and expanding its partnership base of value chain companies and NGOs. He has spent almost his entire career working in the AGRI-food sector where he has held senior leadership, consulting and Executive level positions in policy, partnerships, sustainability, and marketing and communications for a diverse range of companies.

In addition to his work in food and agriculture, Mark is a former Chief Executive of Engineering UK and has held a range of advisory positions including at the EU-U.S. Transatlantic Policy Network.

“On behalf of spiritsEUROPE, I warmly welcome Mark as our new Director General. His depth of experience, his leadership and vision will be great assets in guiding our sector through both opportunities and challenges from 1st September onward” said Ian McLernon, President of spiritsEUROPE.
